100 Dollars Reward.

I WILL give the above reward to any person who will return to my possession, negro LAWRENCE, who assumes the sirname of FENWICK. This fellow left my farm, on the Wicomico river, in Charles county, Md. on the 6th July, in consequence of his own outrageous conduct towards my overseer. He is a negro of a fine erect figure, good features, a smooth black skin, rather above the middle stature, of a youthful appearance for one of thirty years of age, and of great plausibility and natural smartness. His ears grow remarkably close to his head, and on the inside of his lower lip he has a white mark or spot. I purchased him 4 years ago of the estate of Mrs. P. H. Courts, of this county. I am led (by circumstances which have come to my knowledge since he absconded,) to believe that he will endeavor to make his way to King George county, Va.; should he not take this route, he will probably be met with in the District of Columbia, or in the upper counties of this state, on his way to Pennsylvania. I apprehend he will change his name, and if committed to jail, refuse to state to whom he belongs, as the misconduct which preceded his departure, & his absconding, have all appeared since to have been premeditated. He took all his clothes with him, of which he had a large number; among them—a new bear-skin over-coat, a long close-bodied blue coat, a pair of striped jean pantaloons, one or more white waistcoats, besides many articles of coarse cloathing; these, however, he will probably exchange, or sell them for cash to defray his travelling expenses.

I will give the above reward to any person who will bring him home to me, or FIFTY DOLLARS if confined in jail, and notice given me, so that I recover him.—Should he be taken out of the state, I will also pay all reasonable costs and charges which may attend the bringing him home.

Notice,

To Wheelwrights, Blacksmiths, Tanners, Harness-Makers, Saddlers, Hatters, &c.

BELIEVING as I do, that PROVIDENCE, at Fairfax Court-House, would be a suitable situation for mechanics of the above description, I offer to such, lots in that village for sale, on ground rent for ever—will build and furnish suitable houses and rent to them, or furnish brick to them to build with; and invite any who feel disposed to settle there, for the purpose of carrying on their respective trades to advantage, to come and view the situation. It is a very public place, the centre of the county, where the superior and county courts are held. The Little River Turnpike Road passes through this little town from Alexandria westward, and where all the public meetings for the county, &c. are held; and where trades of the aforesaid description being carried on, would meet with great encouragement, and be a public convenience to the country around. No situation can be more healthy—good water, and fire wood cheap. Mechanics of the above description must generally depend on the country people, farmers, &c. to be their customers. Here they would be in a convenient situation for all the purposes. I invite a call, and view for themselves. I would also furnish lots adjacent, from one to five acres each, for cultivation, pasture, &c. on moderate terms; all of which can be shown, and terms made known, on application to RICH'D. RATCLIFFE,

100 Dollars Reward.

RAN away on the 28th of April, from the farm of the subscriber, in Dogue Neck, Fairfax Co. Virginia, negro HARRY, aged about twenty three years, about five feet ten inches high, very black, well built, has a considerable impediment in his speech, when spoken to evinces much confusion, and replies almost unintelligibly: had on when he left home, a much worn suit of domestic cloth. I have every reason to believe that he is endeavoring to pass for a free man, and as such went off in some of the bay craft during the late fishing season. All masters of vessels are forewarned from barboring or taking into their employ said negro, under penalty of having the law rigidly enforced against them. I will give twenty dollars, if taken in the county of Fairfax, or district of Columbia; if beyond that distance, the above reward, provided he is secured in jail so that I get him again. Missouri and Illinois Bounty Lands

THE subscriber has now for sale a number of the most valuable tracts, in both of those rich and improving bodies of lands, and can supply applicants with any number they may wish, and in any part of either territory. Every person who visits the Western Country, particularly those who intend settling there, should take with them a few quarter sections of those lands; every man who has a young and growing family, and can spare a few hundred dollars, should not miss the present opportunity of getting some of those lands; as it will insure to his children a greater certainty than any other investment he can possibly make for their benefit.—From the immense emigration to both Illinois and Missouri, particularly to the military lands, it is certain there must be a great rise in the price very soon, and those who miss the present opportunity, will never again have a chance to do so well. The patents will be sold very low, for cash, good notes or bonds at short dates, or bank stock in the Central Bank of Georgetown and Washington, and the Farmers and Mechanics' Bank of Georgetown. As I am a large dealer in Military Bounty Lands, I can supply any number that may be required.

SCARCITY OF POTATOES.

Mr. Snowden—From the uncommon severe drought this summer, which still continues, it is certain that the important article of POTATOES is scarcer in this neighborhood than was ever known before.

If it was generally known to the northward that they are selling here from 8 to 9 shillings a bushel, it is probable that the owners of many coasting vessels might find it for their interest to send them.

The appearances for a TURNIP CROP at present is as bad as can be.

Perhaps some of the editors of the eastern papers may find it beneficial to their customers to insert the above.

Kingston, (Canada) August 17.

Last week com Bainbridge, accompanied by several officers of the navy and army of the United States, visited Kingston in the Lady of the Lake; and during the visit, they dined with the commissioner of the navy and the officers of the 70th regiment. It affords pleasure to every liberal mind, to see the naval and military officers of the two nations, in time of peace, interchanging civilities, and setting their fellow subjects on both sides, an example of polite and friendly intercourse, while their governments maintain the relations of amity and commerce.

August 30.

The board of health report for the last twenty-four hours, five new cases yellow fever. JS. A. MILLER, Clerk.

A correspondent requests us to publish the following receipe. He stiles it a safe and effectual cure for the yellow fever:

"Take three table spoons full of the essence of spruce. dissolve it in a quart of warm water, then take a half pint tumbler full, once an hour till it operates, which it will frequently do the first or second dose, but will seldom or never exceed the third. The medicine may be taken in any stage of the fever with safety; and in the almost numberless instances in which it has been given, it has never failed of an immediate cure; although it bas, in many instances, been given after the patient has been given over by the physicians, and to appearance very near the close of life.

Communicated for the Richmond Compiler.

A READY CURE FOR AN EATING CANCER.

Take the leaves of Balm of Gilead, beat them up alone, and bind them to the wound.

Another cure for the same.

File up old pure brass, put a spoonful in a vessel, make a plaster of the filed brass and mutton suet, lay the plaster on the wound, which must not be removed until it is quite well, which will have the desired effect in a short time. This has been experienced by several persons, and has never been known to fail of cure.

Raleigh, September 3.

UNFORTUNATE OCCURRENCE.

On Monday night last, one of the stables of William Ruffin, esq. of this city, mail contractor, caught fire, and, we are sorry to state, was consumed with its contents, including some very valuable horses. The stable was situated a few miles from town, on the Fayetteville road; and had in it, at the time, nine horses, besides provender and harness. Two of the poor animals burst the back door in their agony, and escaped, though so dreadfully burnt as to forbid all hopes of their future utility if they should survive. One of the stage drivers had been in the stable but a short time before it took fire—but had, after harnessing his team, in anticipation of the southern mail, unhappily again retired to sleep.—The flames were discovered too late for any possible chance of saving the building.

We have it in our power to state, that notwithstanding this unforeseen loss, there will be no interruption in the regular running of the stages, or the punctual transmission of the mail. Editors who may mention the accident, will please also to notice this for the information of travellers.

Mr. Ruffin's loss is probably at least fifteen hundred dollars.

EXTRAORDINARY FACT.

One of our subscribers, living at No. 71 Chatham-street, relates the following: His fowls occasionally go from the yard into the street and feed upon the offals there. On their return yesterday, one of the finest and the fatest of the chickens was observed to droop, and soon after died. The sudden and unexpected death induced the owner to examine its crop, and it was found to contain, besides the ordinary food, such as gravel, melon seeds, &c. a large mouse which the bird had swallowed.

[New-York Commercial Adv.

New-York, September 2.

BACK AGAIN.

We understand that the ship Magnet, which sailed on Tuesday for Liverpool, took back 135 steerage passengers who recently arrived here from England in pursuit of employment, but could find none.

We know a gentleman who has made a calculation, grounded upon the emigration of the present year, showing that in the course of five years, the number of emigrants to this country will amount to half a million.—New-York is calculated to receive one-sixth of the number, as it has done for the last year. The numerous emigrations via Canadas and Nova-Scotia, are not taken into this calculation.

Extract from New-Orleans, Aug. 4.

"Generally speaking, very little is doing in our commerce, with the exception of flour, of which the price has increased within two weeks, all other articles are dull, Sales of cotton are rather slow. Tobacco is without demand; of sugar very little remains on hand; coffee looks down. Our banks retain the same confidence they have always enjoyed. The embarrasments of our commerce are great, but the time is not far distant, when it will resume its natural activity.

We have also a New-Orleans price current of August 4. In the six days before Aug. 4, 13 vessels had arrived at Orleans, and 7 cleared. The insurance offices would take very few risks on steam boats.

New-York, Sept. 2.

By the arrival this morning of the schooner Eliza Ann, captain Harlow, in 10 days from Elizabeth city, N. C. we learn, that the Emeline, from Elizabeth city, bound to this port, with a cargo of wheat, foundered on the 23d ult. about 15 leagues east of Cape Hatteras. Her commander, capt. Jones, and crew, have arrived here in the Eliza Ann. Commercial Advertiser.

Captain Holland, of the ship Rising Empire, who arrived at Boston on Monday last, left at Gibraltar, on the 23d of July, the brig Rajah, captain Lovett, who was boarded off the Western Islands by a small piratical hermaphrodite brig, and robbed of 1200 dollars in specie and several other things, and threats were made to hang the captain and mate, if they did not produce more money. The U. S. ship of war Erie, sailed in quest of the above brig on the 22d, and was to cruize till the 21st August for her. The 2d officer of the Rajah went in the Erie U. S. frigate Guerriere, and brig Spark, sailed on the 20th for Leghorn.—The Franklin 74, sailed on the 22d for Malaga. [Ibid.

TEXAS, FLORIDA, &c.

Mr. William Darby, author of several valuable works on the Western Country, in a recent publication, makes the following observations on the comparative value to the United States, of the province of Texas, given up to Spain by the late treaty, and the province of East Florida, acquired by the same instrument. If Mr. Darby's views are correct, our government has made a bad bargain indeed; and instead of being anxious for the ratification of Onis's treaty, every citizen of the United States should rather desire to hear that the king of Spain had rejected it in toto. "The value of this truly fine country is unknown at the court of Madrid, or the king of Spain would rejoice to exchange the pine barrens of Florida, for an unqualified cession of a region of five times the extent, and more than ten times the value; a region that must ere long be peopled with either Spanish Creoles, or Anglo Americans; and a region which will be the impassable rampart of whichever country gains its possession. Politicians like other men are ruled more by the trifles of a moment, than by objects of magnitude in future. The posession of the right bank of the Red river, by a Spanish population, must deprive the United States of one of the greatest points of security for Louisiana. It must be a subject of regret that any river discharging its waters into the Mississippi, should be suffered to remain foreign to the United States. Before the cession of Texas to Spain, we could boast of having the entire area drained by the largest stream upon the globe, included within one sovereignty. This was not an empty vaunt; such a possession gave us many solid and permanent advantages, which cannot be easily compensated. Contrary to what is generally thought, Red river is a large navigable stream, many hundred miles above what would be the Spanish limit by the late treaty. What is called the raft, above Natches, is passable with 20 oar and 40 ton barges; one such passed it at the time I was engaged surveying opposite the same raft. In fact, where the intended line will intersect the river, it is as large, if not more so, than the Ohio at Cincinnati, and little less, if any, navigable, with many confluent streams above."

New York, Sept. 4.

FROM ST. SALVADOR.

We learn by capt, Allen, that there had been no privateers on that coast for some time; that the Portuguese vessels sail under convoy; that about the 16th of July, about 1000 troops embarked for St. Catherine, the object of which was unknown; that a similar number from Pernambuco, and a much larger from Rio, had also embarked; that it was conjectured they are to join the troops at Monte Viedo, to go against Buenos Ayres. Loud complaints were made against Americans on account of their concern in privateers, which harrass their trade.

We learn by the schr. Noah Brown, from Curracoa, that Admiral Brion had sailed from Margaretta, with his squadron and 1400 men, and had taken Barcelona without opposition. He intended to proceed to Cumana, which place it was expected he would attack, with his land force in the rear, and by his squadron in front. The Spaniards had laid an embargo at Laguira, and Porto Cavello, and it was said would attack Margaretta, for the purpose of diverting the attention of Admiral Brion.

This news was bro't by a vessel from the Maine, which arrived at Curracoa for provisions.

Extract of a letter to the Editor of the Boston Daily Advertiser, dated

Trinidad, 20th July, 1819.

Since the date of my last letter nothing very material has transpired in that quarter, excepting a victory gained by the united forces under Generals Marino, Saraza and Bermudes, over a body of the royalists under General Arana, on the plains of Cumana. The royalists were completely routed. The army of Gen. Morillo after receiving innumerable defeats, in the skirmishes that happened with that under Bolivar, have retired as far back as Calabosa. General Bolivar has penetrated with part of his army as far as Santa Fee and made a junction with Gen. Santander. The other part of his army is left under the command of the undaunted Paez. The city of Cumana is under blockade by the British forces under the command of Colonel English and General Urdaneta by land, and that of Admiral Brion's squadron by sea. If the siege is persisted in for a few weeks longer, it must inevitably fall, however strongly fortified it may be. The success of the Independents is glorious and important in this quarter. The establishment of a good and salutary form of government is what is requisite at present. But how can so small a number of men, form, in the midst of disorder, confusion and troubles, a substantial government—It is absolutely necessary that they should be countenanced by some foreign nation—It is essential that their flag should be acknowledged by a friendly power. On viewing the history of the American revolution, can any one assert that that glorious revolution would have terminated so fortunately and so quickly, had they not received the generous aid of France and Spain? Certainly, there can be no doubt but that the people of the U. States, even had they been unassisted by the generosity of foreign nations, would have ultimately succeeded; but the struggle would have been long and bloody.

The United States possessed many advantages over the unfortunate people of the South. They knew the meaning and value of liberty—they were in the ample enjoyment of that pure liberty of conscience and independence of property, which were bequeathed to them by their forefathers.

These unfortunate provinces, on the contrary, do not possess any advantage;—doomed by tyrannic Spain to wallow in the mire of ignorance, superstition and intellectual darkness for more than three centuries—they were always unacquainted with liberty, although the revolution commenced in some degree fortunately, yet anarchy, division and murder was soon the order of the day—Their struggle has been long and bloody.

The bill that is now under discussion in parliament ("Foreign Enlistment Bill") if carried will materially affect the patriotic cause. They have just begun to be successful—they have just begun to have a national character—to establish a salutary government—to have a knowledge of the importance of discipline and order—to be in fact free and independent.—At this important crisis the English government is desirous to withdraw her aid, or at least her neutrality.

Extract of a letter from London, dated July 17,

Freights are very scarce. Passengers are not so plentiful as they were, but are likely to be more numerous in a short time, as it is reported that several parishes in the vicinity of London, are about making arrangements to ship off all the PAUPERS that are willing to emigrate. I am extremely sorry to say that all mercantile business is very dull here, and am pretty confident that the city of London never experienced more gloomy times than the present, but we all hope that they will be of short duration. Several very important failures in the American trade have taken place within these few days.

Extract of a letter from Messrs. Monteiros and De la Tuelliere, dated Madeira, March 8, 1819, to a gentleman in Boston.

"On the 2d of this month we felt a misfortune from a fire that burnt a great part of our stores of wines; but, thank God, fortunately for us, the most considerable part of our wines were saved, the oldest and choicest included; so that we can have the pleasure to say, that our friends' orders will continue to be fulfilled with as much satisfaction as they have been heretofore."

To those who have the pleasure of an acquaintance with the character and honor of the house of Monteiros, this declaration of the safety of their best and oldest wines, will be abundantly sufficient. To those who have not that pleasure, the most ample testimony can be afforded in favor of the accuracy of this statement. In Dec. 1817, a gentleman of this town received by the Haymaker a half pipe of wine of a particular denomination from the house of Monteiros, which was thought by himself and his friends of most excellent quality.—The same person has lately received by the Boston, Captain Knowles, three half pipes of the same description, which were shipped after the fire, which was tried on the day of its landing by himself and a friend who had tasted the first, and pronounced to be clearly superior to that by the Haymaker; and the second day after the landing, it was tasted by some of the first judges in this place, and determined to be wine of the very first rate excellence. From this it is wished it may be known, that this house has at least an equal ability as before the fire, of furnishing the first wines, and to those who have known what their wines have been—this is enough.

Newburyport, August 31.

FROM LABRADORE.

Captain N. Brown, jun. who arrived here on Sunday, from St. Francis, Labradore, has handed us the following memorandum:

"A whale-boat arrived at St. Francis 29th July, belonging to the schr. Nancy of New-Bedford, on a whaling voyage, with five men in the boat. They stated that they belonged to the Nancy, Captain How, of New-Bedford; that on the 5th of July they struck a whale off Old Point Ritch, Newfoundland, when the whale run them off 10 or 12 miles from the land, and a thick fog coming on, they lost their vessel, and could hear nothing of her afterwards; that they had been at all places on the coast, where there was any probability of finding her, but their search was ineffectual; that the boat's crew consisted of two white men and three negroes, one of the whites an Irishman, the other called his name Wm. Leeds, said he had been mate of the Nancy of Newburyport.—When they were questioned as to the 6th man, which made up the crew, they said he was a Frenchman, and that he left the boat at some part of Newfoundland while they were getting provisions to go to Labradore. They had neither line nor any kind of whale craft with them when they arrived. He left them all at St. Francis 9th August.—They had been fishing for the harbor agent, but I believe they were about leaving, with their boat, as they came along-side the Lark when ready to sail, and I gave them some provisions.

"N. B. I was informed by one of the Catholic Missionaries, that nearly all that part of St. John's, N. F. which escaped destruction in 1817, was entirely destroyed by a dreadful fire in July last."

FROM GIBRALTAR.

By the ship Rising Empire which arrived last evening from Gibraltar, accounts are received to the 23d ult.

A letter of the 22d says "It is reported Ferdinand has signed, or will sign the Treaty with the United States." But the writer does not seem to have much confidence in the rumor.

Nothing is said of any difference between Algiers and Spain or Holland.

Our papers are to the 17th of July, from which we have extracted the following articles.

THE PLAGUE.

Gibraltar, June 17.

From Tangier July 13—The Plague continues at Larache—At Fez, from 40 to 50 deaths daily—at Arlat, 8 to 10—at Sale, from 8 to 10—in Shaum, Tamesna and Ducala, the Plague was raging with great violence—it was reported to have appeared in the neighborhood of Morocco, and there were suspicions of its having extended to that town Deaths at Tangiers between 29th of June and 12th inst. 7—at Tetuan, between 28th of June and 10th July, 285. Accounts had been received at Tetuan in 15 days from Oran, by which it appeared that the plague still existed throughout the kingdom of Algiers; that the daily deaths in the capital were about 60, and at Oran still more considerable.

VICTORY OVER THE KING OF MOROCCO.

Tangiers, July 10.

The king of Morocco at the head of an army of 56,000 men, and attended by his son, and principal Bashaws, marched last month, against a numerous tribe of rebellious Arabs, for the purpose of chastising them. On the 21st, the attack commenced at 11 in the morning, and was kept up till 5 in the afternoon, when the whole of the king's army, himself included, remained at the mercy of the conquerer, having lost between killed and wounded no fewer than 20,000 men. The Arabs desperately charged with the bayonet, having the deep river Morbeg at their back, to put it out of their power to run away. This spirited determination, and the skilful manoeuvre by which they cut off the retreat of the king's army, were the causes of the victory proving so decisive.

The Arabs, however, did not make such an ill use of it as was to be feared, since, although they completely plundered their prisoners, they spared their lives, and Muley Benazar's Sheriffs, under whose protection the king put himself, allowed him to come back to his dominions. In the mean while, ten days having elapsed without the fate of the king, or his son being known, this town was threatened with an anarchy which excited the greatest apprehensions. These, however, were at an end, the moment we heard that the king had arrived at Ya in good health, and that his son was on his way to Fez.

SCARCITY OF POTATOES.

Mr. Snowden—From the uncommon severe drought this summer, which still continues, it is certain that the important article of POTATOES is scarcer in this neighborhood than was ever known before.

If it was generally known to the northward that they are selling here from 8 to 9 shillings a bushel, it is probable that the owners of many coasting vessels might find it for their interest to send them.

The appearances for a TURNIP CROP at present is as bad as can be.

Perhaps some of the editors of the eastern papers may find it beneficial to their customers to insert the above.

Kingston, (Canada) August 17.

Last week com Bainbridge, accompanied by several officers of the navy and army of the United States, visited Kingston in the Lady of the Lake; and during the visit, they dined with the commissioner of the navy and the officers of the 70th regiment. It affords pleasure to every liberal mind, to see the naval and military officers of the two nations, in time of peace, interchanging civilities, and setting their fellow subjects on both sides, an example of polite and friendly intercourse, while their governments maintain the relations of amity and commerce.

August 30.

The board of health report for the last twenty-four hours, five new cases yellow fever. JS. A. MILLER, Clerk.

A correspondent requests us to publish the following receipe. He stiles it a safe and effectual cure for the yellow fever:

"Take three table spoons full of the essence of spruce, dissolve it in a quart of warm water, then take a half pint tumbler full, once an hour till it operates, which it will frequently do the first or second dose, but will seldom or never exceed the third. The medicine may be taken in any stage of the fever with safety; and in the almost numberless instances in which it has been given, it has never failed of an immediate cure; although it has, in many instances, been given after the patient has been given over by the physicians, and to appearance very near the close of life.

A READY CURE FOR AN EATING CANCER.

Take the leaves of Balm of Gilead, beat them up alone, and bind them to the wound.

Another cure for the same.

File up old pure brass, put a spoonful in a vessel, make a plaster of the filed brass and mutton suet, lay the plaster on the wound, which must not be removed until it is quite well, which will have the desired effect in a short time. This has been experienced by several persons, and has never been known to fail of cure.

Raleigh, September 3.

UNFORTUNATE OCCURRENCE.

On Monday night last, one of the stables of William Ruffin, esq. of this city, mail contractor, caught fire, and, we are sorry to state, was consumed with its contents, including some very valuable horses. The stable was situated a few miles from town, on the Fayetteville road; and had in it, at the time, nine horses, besides provender and harness. Two of the poor animals burst the back door in their agony, and escaped, though so dreadfully burnt as to forbid all hopes of their future utility if they should survive. One of the stage drivers had been in the stable but a short time before it took fire—but had, after harnessing his team, in anticipation of the southern mail, unhappily again retired to sleep.—The flames were discovered too late for any possible chance of saving the building.

We have it in our power to state, that notwithstanding this unforeseen loss, there will be no interruption in the regular running of the stages, or the punctual transmission of the mail. Editors who may mention the accident, will please also to notice this for the information of travellers.

Mr. Ruffin's loss is probably at least fifteen hundred dollars.

EXTRAORDINARY FACT.

One of our subscribers, living at No. 71 Chatham-street, relates the following: His fowls occasionally go from the yard into the street and feed upon the offals there. On their return yesterday, one of the finest and the fatest of the chickens was observed to droop, and soon after died. The sudden and unexpected death induced the owner to examine its crop, and it was found to contain, besides the ordinary food, such as gravel, melon seeds, &c. a large mouse which the bird had swallowed.

BACK AGAIN.

We understand that the ship Magnet, which sailed on Tuesday for Liverpool, took back 135 steerage passengers who recently arrived here from England in pursuit of employment, but could find none.

We know a gentleman who has made a calculation, grounded upon the emigration of the present year, showing that in the course of five years, the number of emigrants to this country will amount to half a million.—New-York is calculated to receive one-sixth of the number, as it has done for the last year. The numerous emigrations via Canadas and Nova-Scotia, are not taken into this calculation.

Extract from New-Orleans, Aug. 4.

"Generally speaking, very little is doing in our commerce, with the exception of flour, of which the price has increased within two weeks, all other articles are dull, Sales of cotton are rather slow. Tobacco is without demand; of sugar very little remains on hand; coffee looks down. Our banks retain the same confidence they have always enjoyed. The embarrasments of our commerce are great, but the time is not far distant, when it will resume its natural activity.

We have also a New-Orleans price current of August 4. Kentucky bagging was 20 cents per yard; Atlantic mess beef. 17 dollars per barrel; cargo No. 1. 16; Kentucky 13 to 14; Philadelphia bricks, 12 per 1000; butter 28 cents per lb.; mould candles 19; spermacetti 50; best Havana coffee 30; cotton, 1st quality, 19; Tennessee cotton 15; flour, best superfine, 12 per barrel; fine 9; wheat 1 dollar per bushel; corn 1½ per bbl.; peas 7 to 8; rice 9 to 10 per bbl.; Kentucky hemp yarn, 10 cents per lb.; corn meal, kiln dried, 2 to 2½ per bbl.; prime Kentucky pork, & eastern mess, 18 dolls. cargo do. 16; country sugar, prime, 9 cents per lb.; Havana brown 13, white 16; Kentucky tobacco 4 dollars per cwt.; Kentucky, Tennessee and Alabama Bank notes, 15 per cent under par: Georgias and Carolinas, 12½; exchange on London, par at 60 days; on the eastern cities nothing doing. In the six days before Aug. 4, 13 vessels had arrived at Orleans, and 7 cleared. The insurance offices would take very few risks on steam boats.

New-York, Sept. 2.

By the arrival this morning of the schooner Eliza Ann, captain Harlow, in 10 days from Elizabeth city, N. C. we learn, that the Emeline, from Elizabeth city, bound to this port, with a cargo of wheat, foundered on the 23d ult. about 15 leagues east of Cape Hatteras. Her commander, capt. Jones, and crew, have arrived here in the Eliza Ann. Commercial Advertiser.

Captain Holland, of the ship Rising Empire, who arrived at Boston on Monday last, left at Gibraltar, on the 23d of July, the brig Rajah, captain Lovett, who was boarded off the Western Islands by a small piratical hermaphrodite brig, and robbed of 1200 dollars in specie and several other things, and threats were made to hang the captain and mate, if they did not produce more money. The U. S. ship of war Erie, sailed in quest of the above brig on the 22d, and was to cruize till the 21st August for her. The 2d officer of the Rajah went in the Erie U. S. frigate Guerriere, and brig Spark, sailed on the 20th for Leghorn.—The Franklin 74, sailed on the 22d for Malaga. [Ibid.

TEXAS, FLORIDA, &c.

Mr. William Darby, author of several valuable works on the Western Country, in a recent publication, makes the following observations on the comparative value to the United States, of the province of Texas, given up to Spain by the late treaty, and the province of East Florida, acquired by the same instrument. If Mr. Darby's views are correct, our government has made a bad bargain indeed; and instead of being anxious for the ratification of Onis's treaty, every citizen of the United States should rather desire to hear that the king of Spain had rejected it in toto. "The value of this truly fine country is unknown at the court of Madrid, or the king of Spain would rejoice to exchange the pine barrens of Florida, for an unqualified cession of a region of five times the extent, and more than ten times the value; a region that must ere long be peopled with either Spanish Creoles, or Anglo Americans; and a region which will be the impassable rampart of whichever country gains its possession. Politicians like other men are ruled more by the trifles of a moment, than by objects of magnitude in future. The possession of the right bank of the Red river, by a Spanish population, must deprive the United States of one of the greatest points of security for Louisiana. It must be a subject of regret that any river discharging its waters into the Mississippi, should be suffered to remain foreign to the United States. Before the cession of Texas to Spain, we could boast of having the entire area drained by the largest stream upon the globe, included within one sovereignty. This was not an empty vaunt; such a possession gave us many solid and permanent advantages, which cannot be easily compensated. Contrary to what is generally thought, Red river is a large navigable stream, many hundred miles above what would be the Spanish limit by the late treaty. What is called the raft, above Natches, is passable with 20 oar and 40 ton barges; one such passed it at the time I was engaged surveying opposite the same raft. In fact, where the intended line will intersect the river, it is as large, if not more so, than the Ohio at Cincinnati, and little less, if any, navigable, with many confluent streams above."

New York, Sept. 4.

FROM ST. SALVADOR.

We learn by capt, Allen, that there had been no privateers on that coast for some time; that the Portuguese vessels sail under convoy; that about the 16th of July, about 1000 troops embarked for St. Catherine, the object of which was unknown; that a similar number from Pernambuco, and a much larger from Rio, had also embarked; that it was conjectured they are to join the troops at Monte Viedo, to go against Buenos Ayres. Loud complaints were made against Americans on account of their concern in privateers, which harrass their trade.

We learn by the schr. Noah Brown, from Curracoa, that Admiral Brion had sailed from Margaretta, with his squadron and 1400 men, and had taken Barcelona without opposition. He intended to proceed to Cumana, which place it was expected he would attack, with his land force in the rear, and by his squadron in front. The Spaniards had laid an embargo at Laguira, and Porto Cavello, and it was said would attack Margaretta, for the purpose of diverting the attention of Admiral Brion.

This news was bro't by a vessel from the Maine, which arrived at Curracoa for provisions.

Extract of a letter to the Editor of the Boston Daily Advertiser, dated

Trinidad, 20th July, 1819.

Since the date of my last letter nothing very material has transpired in that quarter, excepting a victory gained by the united forces under Generals Marino, Saraza and Bermudes, over a body of the royalists under General Arana, on the plains of Cumana. The royalists were completely routed. The army of Gen. Morillo after receiving innumerable defeats, in the skirmishes that happened with that under Bolivar, have retired as far back as Calabosa. General Bolivar has penetrated with part of his army as far as Santa Fee and made a junction with Gen. Santander. The other part of his army is left under the command of the undaunted Paez. The city of Cumana is under blockade by the British forces under the command of Colonel English and General Urdaneta by land, and that of Admiral Brion's squadron by sea. If the siege is persisted in for a few weeks longer, it must inevitably fall, however strongly fortified it may be. The success of the Independents is glorious and important in this quarter. The establishment of a good and salutary form of government is what is requisite at present. But how can so small a number of men, form, in the midst of disorder, confusion and troubles, a substantial government—It is absolutely necessary that they should be countenanced by some foreign nation—It is essential that their flag should be acknowledged by a friendly power. On viewing the history of the American revolution, can any one assert that that glorious revolution would have terminated so fortunately and so quickly, had they not received the generous aid of France and Spain? Certainly, there can be no doubt but that the people of the U. States, even had they been unassisted by the generosity of foreign nations, would have ultimately succeeded; but the struggle would have been long and bloody.

The United States possessed many advantages over the unfortunate people of the South. They knew the meaning and value of liberty—they were in the ample enjoyment of that pure liberty of conscience and independence of property, which were bequeathed to them by their forefathers.

These unfortunate provinces, on the contrary, do not possess any advantage;—doomed by tyrannic Spain to wallow in the mire of ignorance, superstition and intellectual darkness for more than three centuries—they were always unacquainted with liberty, although the revolution commenced in some degree fortunately, yet anarchy, division and murder was soon the order of the day—Their struggle has been long and bloody.

The bill that is now under discussion in parliament ("Foreign Enlistment Bill") if carried will materially affect the patriotic cause. They have just begun to be successful—they have just begun to have a national character—to establish a salutary government—to have a knowledge of the importance of discipline and order—to be in fact free and independent.—At this important crisis the English government is desirous to withdraw her aid, or at least her neutrality.

Extract of a letter from London, dated July 17,

Freights are very scarce. Passengers are not so plentiful as they were, but are likely to be more numerous in a short time, as it is reported that several parishes in the vicinity of London, are about making arrangements to ship off all the PAUPERS that are willing to emigrate. I am extremely sorry to say that all mercantile business is very dull here, and am pretty confident that the city of London never experienced more gloomy times than the present, but we all hope that they will be of short duration. Several very important failures in the American trade have taken place within these few days.

Extract of a letter from Messrs. Monteiros and De la Tuelliere, dated Madeira, March 8, 1819, to a gentleman in Boston.

"On the 2d of this month we felt a misfortune from a fire that burnt a great part of our stores of wines; but, thank God, fortunately for us, the most considerable part of our wines were saved, the oldest and choicest included; so that we can have the pleasure to say, that our friends' orders will continue to be fulfilled with as much satisfaction as they have been heretofore."

To those who have the pleasure of an acquaintance with the character and honor of the house of Monteiros, this declaration of the safety of their best and oldest wines, will be abundantly sufficient. To those who have not that pleasure, the most ample testimony can be afforded in favor of the accuracy of this statement. In Dec. 1817, a gentleman of this town received by the Haymaker a half pipe of wine of a particular denomination from the house of Monteiros, which was thought by himself and his friends of most excellent quality.—The same person has lately received by the Boston, Captain Knowles, three half pipes of the same description, which were shipped after the fire; which was tried on the day of its landing by himself and a friend who had tasted the first, and pronounced to be clearly superior to that by the Haymaker; and the second day after the landing, it was tasted by some of the first judges in this place, and determined to be wine of the very first rate excellence. From this it is wished it may be known, that this house has at least an equal ability as before the fire, of furnishing the first wines, and to those who have known what their wines have been—this is enough.

Newburyport, August 31.

FROM LABRADORE.

Captain N. Brown, jun. who arrived here on Sunday, from St. Francis, Labradore, has handed us the following memorandum:

"A whale-boat arrived at St. Francis 29th July, belonging to the schr. Nancy of New-Bedford, on a whaling voyage, with five men in the boat. They stated that they belonged to the Nancy, Captain How, of New-Bedford; that on the 5th of July they struck a whale off Old Point Ritch, Newfoundland, when the whale run them off 10 or 12 miles from the land, and a thick fog coming on, they lost their vessel, and could hear nothing of her afterwards; that they had been at all places on the coast, where there was any probability of finding her, but their search was ineffectual; that the boat's crew consisted of two white men and three negroes, one of the whites an Irishman, the other called his name Wm. Leeds, said he had been mate of the Nancy of Newburyport.—When they were questioned as to the 6th man, which made up the crew, they said he was a Frenchman, and that he left the boat at some part of Newfoundland while they were getting provisions to go to Labradore. They had neither line nor any kind of whale craft with them when they arrived. He left them all at St. Francis 9th August.—They had been fishing for the harbor agent, but I believe they were about leaving, with their boat, as they came along-side the Lark when ready to sail, and I gave them some provisions.

"N. B. I was informed by one of the Catholic Missionaries, that nearly all that part of St. John's, N. F. which escaped destruction in 1817, was entirely destroyed by a dreadful fire in July last."

FROM GIBRALTAR.

By the ship Rising Empire which arrived last evening from Gibraltar, accounts are received to the 23d ult.

A letter of the 22d says "It is reported Ferdinand has signed, or will sign the Treaty with the United States." But the writer does not seem to have much confidence in the rumor.

Nothing is said of any difference between Algiers and Spain or Holland.

Our papers are to the 17th of July, from which we have extracted the following articles.

THE PLAGUE.

Gibraltar, June 17.

From Tangier July 13—The Plague continues at Larache—At Fez, from 40 to 50 deaths daily—at Arlat, 8 to 10—at Sale, from 8 to 10—in Shaum, Tamesna and Ducala, the Plague was raging with great violence—it was reported to have appeared in the neighborhood of Morocco, and there were suspicions of its having extended to that town. Deaths at Tangiers between 29th of June and 12th inst. 7—at Tetuan, between 28th of June and 10th July, 285. Accounts had been received at Tetuan in 18 days from Oran, by which it appeared that the plague still existed throughout the kingdom of Algiers; that the daily deaths in the capital were about 60, and at Oran still more considerable.

VICTORY OVER THE KING OF MOROCCO.

Tangiers, July 10.

The king of Morocco at the head of an army of 56,000 men, and attended by his son, and principal Bashaws, marched last month, against a numerous tribe of rebellious Arabs, for the purpose of chastising them. On the 21st, the attack commenced at 11 in the morning, and was kept up till 5 in the afternoon, when the whole of the king's army, himself included, remained at the mercy of the conquerer, having lost between killed and wounded no fewer than 20,000 men. The Arabs desperately charged with the bayonet, having the deep river Morbeg at their back, to put it out of their power to run away. This spirited determination, and the skilful manoeuvre by which they cut off the retreat of the king's army, were the causes of the victory proving so decisive.

The Arabs, however, did not make such an ill use of it as was to be feared, since, although they completely plundered their prisoners, they spared their lives, and Muley Benazar's Sheriffs, under whose protection the king put himself, allowed him to come back to his dominions. In the mean while, ten days having elapsed without the fate of the king, or his son being known, this town was threatened with an anarchy which excited the greatest apprehensions. These, however, were at an end, the moment we heard that the king had arrived at Ya in good health, and that his son was on his way to Fez.

JOHN HOPKINS

Hill and Dale, April 20.

Gunston for Sale.

THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Pohick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaister acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania.—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain: being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary outhouse, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might,) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvass backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensels and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Pohick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.

S. Drew, Merchant Tailor,

Removed from Fairfax-street to the corner of King and Columbus streets, and his prices falling

RESPECTFULLY acquaints his customers and the citizens in general that he has removed as above, where he will study to give satisfaction. He has by him a small but well assorted stock of goods, which will be found on inspection to be of the best quality, the whole of which he wishes to sell low for cash, and as further inducements to purchasers he offers to cut out any goods, bought of him to any size or pattern gratis.

S. Drew aware, of the advantage a ready money business has over one where long credit is given, thinks that a distinction ought to be made in the prices in each case: and as the price of provisions are low at present, he is glad to be able to announce to those customers who will feel disposed to pay him ready money for his work, that he will reduce the price of making to them according to the present journeymen's wages; and to prevent any supposed imposition on the one hand or disatisfaction on the other he is willing to be goverued by the printed regulations of prices by which the journeymen are paid in Alexandria.

N. B. Bread, flour, beef, groceries, liquors or any thing valuable taken in exchange for clothes.

S. Drew has this day opened a tavern in the same house, where he has laid in a a supply of Philadelphia and the district porter and ale, together with liquors of the best quality, and he feels confident that he shall be able to give satisfaction to all who will please to favor him with a call.—He is fitting up his house for the accommodation of boarders, travellers, &c. and from its central situation, good beds and stabling, together with other requisites, he presumes that it will be found a convenient establishment. may 25

PROSPECTUS

Of a new periodical work to be published in the city of Washington, entitled the

Washington Theological REPERTORY.

EDITORS. { Rev. Wm Hawley, Washington,
Rev. Wm. H. Wilmer, Alexandria,
Rev. Oliver Norris, Alexandria,
Rev. Reuel Keith, Georgetown.

Assisted by several other literary gentlemen of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

IF any apology were necessary for this undertaking, it may be found in the fact, that there is no publication on a similar plan, in all that section of our country lying south of New-York, and but one in the whole of the United States. It has been matter of equal surprize and regret, that the Episcopal Church should be so far behind other Christian denominations, in similar efforts to disseminate the principles of religion and piety. At a period like the present, when the Lord is preparing his way on earth, by the most remarkable efforts of human agency, and the most wonderful operations of his providence and grace—when we perceive in every part of Christendom, a praise-worthy emulation to share in the glorious work of filling the earth with the knowledge of the only true God, and his Son Jesus Christ; it would seem criminal for any to withhold their exertions, however feeble, in the great enterprize of human happiness and salvation. The editors have, therefore, felt it their duty to make this humble effort to supply this acknowledged deficiency on the part of the church in this section of the country, and to bear their share in the common exertions of Christians to promote the Redeemer's Kingdom. And having obtained the services of a gentleman, in whose talents and principles they have confidence, whose time will be wholly devoted to the superintendence of the work, they feel encouraged to solicit the patronage of the public.

The publecation will be conducted under the immediate inspection and control of the above named editors, who will form a committee to review every article intended for publication. The principles upon which it will be conducted are those of the bible, as illustrated in the articles, Liturgy and Homilies of the Protestant Episcopal Church. As members of this church the editors will feel bound to support the Apostolical character of her institutions, the pious tendency of her rites and ceremonies, and the evangelical nature of her doctrines But in these, and all other discussions, they hope never to loose sight of that great law of charity which teaches us to "preserve the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace."

Acting upon those catholic principles, so long and so successively pursued by "The Christian Observer," their chief object will be to inculcate sound theological knowledge, and to delineate and recommend pure and vital religion. They trust therefore, that while the members of every Christian denomination may find something edifying and instructive, none will discover any just cause for offence in the pages of this work. General subjects of biblical criticism, practical illustrations of scriptural truth, the biography of illustrious persons, evidences of the truth of revelation, essays on the history and polity of the church, reviews of interesting publications, religious, literary and philosophical intelligence—in short, whatever is connected with the promotion of religion, humanity and literature, will find a place in this repository.

The testimony of experience supersedes the necessity of dwelling on the advantages of a periodical publication on the plan proposed. Its obvious tendency will be to render the various departments of religious knowledge more easy and accessible, and give a more ready currency and wider circulation, to those great truths which involve the present welfare and future destiny of man.

It will tend powerfully to stimulate the exertions of the editors, and console them under the difficulties attendant on the prosecution of this work, amidst many other avocations, should it prove the means under the blessing of God, of enriching any of its readers with the saving knowledge of Christ, and prepare them for a participation in the felicity and glory of his heavenly kingdom. With this hope they commit it into his hands, and confidently solicit their brethren of the clergy and laity to assist them in carrying into effect the objects of the undertaking.
